

Emerging Excellence

Tuesday, May 1, 2018

The Peter T. Paul Entrepreneurship Center (ECenter) was named the 2017 recipient of the Global Consortium of Entrepreneurship Center's "Outstanding Emerging Entrepreneurship Center Award."

The award honors an outstanding entrepreneurship center that is five years old or less; UNH's ECenter, which was established to help students, faculty members and alumni become problem-solvers and then to support them as they turn their ideas into products and businesses, opened in January 2016. In accepting the award, ECenter director Ian Grant thanked alums Peter Paul '67 for providing the seed funding to establish the center and Harry Patten '58 for supporting several student initiatives.
