The University of New Hampshire at Manchester will celebrate the achievements of 274 graduates* at the college's 33rd annual commencement on Thursday, May 17, 2018, beginning at 6 p.m. at the Manchester Downtown Hotel. The ceremony recognizes 208 undergraduate and 66 graduate students who have earned an associate, bachelor's or master's degree at the University of New Hampshire's campus in Manchester.

UNH President Mark Huddleston will lead the proceedings, which will include a keynote address by renowned inventor and entrepreneur Dean Kamen. Abigail Goen, a 2018 graduate of the biological sciences program, will deliver the student address.

The program also includes the presentation of the college's Excellence in Teaching Awards to Daniel Seichepine, assistant professor of neuropsychology, and Suzanne Cooke, adjunct instructor of biological sciences, as well as the 2018 Granite State Award to Joseph Reilly, former NH regional president of Eastern Bank.

The anticipated graduates* are listed below. Congratulations, class of 2018!
