

UNH Law Professor Tonya Evans To Make Series Of Presentations

Wednesday, August 1, 2018

UNH Law professor Tonya Evans recently had her current work-in-progress, “CryptoKitties, Cryptography, and Copyright” accepted for presentation at the 2018 BYU Copyright and Trademark Symposium in Provo, Utah, adding to a growing list of speaking engagements on the paper.

The BYU symposium will be held Oct. 18 and 19, and Evans’s paper will also be published in the BYU Copyright and Trademark Symposium Issue of the American Intellectual Property Law Association Quarterly Journal.

In addition to the BYU symposium appearance, Evans was a featured panelist on two panels and presented on the paper in July at the Lutie Lytle Black Women Faculty Workshop & Writing Retreat at SMU Dedman School of Law in Dallas, Texas.

Evans will be a panelist at the 2018 SEALS Annual Conference (held Aug. 5-11 in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.) as part of a panel on Blockchain and the Law, and she will be one of only two plenary presenters at the Intellectual Property Scholars Conference on Aug. 10 at Berkeley Law in Berkeley, Calif.

Covering the Care: Health Insurance Coverage in New Hampshire | 2020 Update

This brief provides updates from the Insurance Coverage and Marketplace "Covering the Care Briefs" that were previously published.<sup>1</sup> This update also includes a special section focused on premiums and deductibles in New Hampshire.

WHY DOES INSURANCE COVERAGE MATTER?

Individuals risk experiencing unexpected and high medical costs and often forgo necessary care when they lack health insurance. More than 3 in 4 uninsured adults said they or their family delayed or went without health care because of cost reasons in 2019.<sup>2</sup>

INSURANCE COVERAGE IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

The uninsured rate in NH has been consistent in recent years, approximately 6% from 2015 through 2019, down from almost 11% in 2013.<sup>3</sup> Nationally, the uninsured rate was approximately 9% in 2019. New Hampshire's rate of 6.1% in 2019 is higher than its 2018 rate of 5.7%, while these are not significant

FOCUS ON HEALTH POLICY RISING COSTS AND MARKET INSTABILITY

The cost of health insurance, in terms of premiums and deductibles, increased significantly between 2017 and 2019. This is due in part to the reality that the underlying costs to provide health care are high, and New Hampshire is a small state. The insurance industry attributes rising premiums to many factors, including:

- ongoing uncertainty about the future of the Affordable Care Act;
- the elimination of the individual mandate penalty by Congress in December 2017;
- lack of funding for cost sharing reductions;
