

Social Innovation Internships

Wednesday, August 1, 2018

Nelson Thomas '20 was among 24 UNH students who participated in the Center for Social Innovation and Enterprise's summer internship program that positions students with socially conscious nonprofit and for-profit businesses. Now in its eighth year, the program is a joint venture of the Paul College and Carsey School of Public Policy. Students showcased their work during a presentation held at Paul College July 24.
