Money Magazine ranks UNH among Best Colleges for Your Money

Monday, October 1, 2018

As if students didn't have enough good reasons to attend UNH — 200-plus majors, 11 schools and colleges, more than 250 clubs — Money magazine has gone and ranked the university among the top 100 of its Best Colleges for Your Money 2018.

Based on data gathered from the U.S. Department of Education, Peterson's and PayScale.com, the rankings consider such factors as graduation rates, quality of education, tuition charges, family borrowing and alumni earnings. According to Money's calculations, about 77 percent of UNH students finish within six years — that's 15 percent higher than schools with a similar student body.
