UNH is accepting nominations for 2023 commencement speakers. Students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends of the university are invited to submit ideas. With the shift to college specific ceremonies, the submission process will be different. Please use the online form to submit your recommendation and indicate which college or campus ceremony is the best fit for your nomination. Each speaker will also be awarded an honorary degree or Granite State Award (decided by the college award committee). All awards will be presented during the various ceremonies in May 2023. Do you know an outstanding individual worthy of recognition that would also make a great commencement speaker? Nominations will be accepted through Oct. 31, 2022.
